

EUROPEAN LADIES

AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

In Memory
Celia Barquin Arozamena (1996-2018)
2018 European Ladies' Amateur Champion

PARKSTONE GOLF CLUB
24-27 July 2019

Welcome

The European Golf Association is grateful to England Golf and Parkstone Golf Club for hosting the 2019 European Ladies' Amateur Championship.

Supporting the best European golfers by hosting an EGA event is a major contribution to the game of golf which all national golf associations must make as often as possible.

The EGA therefore is very much looking forward to having one of its flagship events hosted in England.

I am sure that the championship will be keenly contested in the friendliest spirit and I wish all competitors a most happy and enjoyable event.

Pierre Bechmann
President, EGA

On behalf of England Golf, it is my pleasure to welcome the European Golf Association and all competitors to the European Ladies' Amateur Championship.

We are very grateful to Parkstone Golf Club, its Captains, officials and members for agreeing to host this event. It is a fitting venue for this prestigious competition – a club with more than a hundred years of history, and a magnificent heathland course, in a beautiful setting on the South coast.

I am sure that we all look forward to watching some splendid golf, played in the best traditions of the game, and to congratulating the worthy winner at the end of the week.

Jenny Clink
President, England Golf

Welcome

On behalf of the members of Parkstone Golf Club, I am delighted to welcome the European Golf Association, England Golf, competitors, their supporters, and spectators to the 2019 Ladies European Amateur Championships.

We are thrilled that such a prestigious amateur event will be played here at Parkstone. The course is a seaside heathland course with its fairways lined with the delights of pine and heather, affording some magnificent views across Poole Harbour, Brownsea Island and the Purbecks.

The course has been, superbly prepared by Grant Peters, our Course Manager and his team. I am sure you will all enjoy the unique warmth of welcome and experience that Parkstone provides. Let's hope that the golf and the weather give us a week to remember.

Val Ford
Ladies Captain
Parkstone Golf Club

Venue – Parkstone Golf Club

The History of Parkstone Golf Club dates back to 1909 with the first Lord Wimborne, Ivor Bertie Guest, founding the course in an area of 100 acres within his estate of the Luscombe Valley. Willie Park Jnr, two times Open Champion was the architect.

A group of local business men bought the course in 1927 and a further 63 acres of land was purchased. James Braid, five times Open Champion designed the present 8 to 11th holes on this land, as well as altering several other holes.

Reg Whitcombe was appointed by the Board as Professional from 1928 to the time of his death in 1956. In 1938 he won the Open Championship at Royal St George's Sandwich. From 1957 to 1970 Peter Alliss (the voice of golf) succeeded him, making 8 Ryder Cup appearances between 1953 – '69 and winning 23 major professional events.

One of our members, Bill Shankland, was a remarkable sportsman. He joined Parkstone in 1973 and, aged 91 died in 1998. He played Rugby Union and League for Australia, boxed and swam representing Australia, was 3rd in the Open Golf Championship at St Andrew's in 1939 and 3rd in the Open Championship at Hoylake in 1947.

Six of our lady members have achieved international amateur fame:

- EMS Arkell - Ladies Swiss open champion 1933;
- Phyllis Wade - English Ladies champion 1935 and played in the Curtis Cup 1936. Barbara Dixon won the English Ladies Championship in 1969.
- Maureen Garrett - French Ladies Open Champion 1946, Curtis Cup player in 1948, Captain Curtis Cup 1960, English Home Internationals 1947, '48, '50, '53, Captain of England 1959, '60, '63, President LGU 1982-84, Bobby Jones Award by the USGA for Distinguished Sportsmanship in Golf 1983.
- Jane Sugden - English Home Internationals 1953, '54, '55, England v Canada and New Zealand 1953.
- Jeanne Bisgood (1939 to present day, and daughter of our former President, Bertram Bisgood) - English Ladies Champion 1951, '53, '57, Swedish Champion '52, German Champion '53, Italian Champion '53 Portuguese Champion '54 Norwegian Champion '55, Curtis Cup 1950 '52 '54, Captain Curtis Cup 1970, England Home International 1949 '50, '51, '52, '53, '54, '56, '58. She was Parkstone Golf Club's first Lady President (2000 to '03).
- Georgia Hall - A Junior Member at Parkstone she has subsequently achieved worldwide recognition. As well being a Flag Bearer for Team GB, she won 2 Gold Medals at the Youth Olympics Festival in Australia in 2013. She was a member of the Junior Solheim Cup 2013 and Curtis Cup 2014 teams, and became British Girls' Amateur Champion in 2012 and British Ladies Amateur Champion the following year. After turning Professional victory at the Oates Victoria Open on the Australian LPG Tour in 2016, was followed in 2018 by her triumph in the RICOH Women's British Open Championship at Royal Lytham and St Anne's. She was elected an Honorary Member of Parkstone in 2015.
