I. VENUE INFORMATION

a. The Club Details

The venue for the European Amateur Team Championship 2016 is Golf de Chantilly.

Golf de Chantilly was inaugurated in 1908.

It was designed by the British architect Tom Simpson who built many courses among the most famous ones in France: Morfontaine, Fontainebleau, Hossegor ...

S.A. Prince Louis Murat, first President and founder of Golf de Chantilly, was an eminent sportsman. The second President was Baron Edouard de Rothschild.

Golf de Chantilly comprises two 18-holes courses: "Vineuil" and "Longères".

The 2016 European Amateur Team Championship will be played on the Vineuil course.

European Amateur Team Championship's players should enjoy this very interesting old course which is also adapted to modern golf. The Vineuil course record was set by Mr Peter Mc Evoy at the 1983 European Team Championship, with a score of 63.

Numerous International matches, as well as amateur and professional championships have been organized at Golf de Chantilly since 1913. The most famous are:

- The Open de France, several times between 1913 and 1990
- The St Andrews Trophy in 1994
- The Jacques Léglise Trophy in 2001
- The Vagliano Trophy in 2005 and 2013
- European Team Championships (Boys, Youth, Ladies, Men) between 1933 and 1987
- European Young Masters in 2008
- England vs France match in 1982 and 2002
- India vs France match in 1984
- Scotland vs France match in 1987
- European Amateur Championship in 2009

MEDICAL CERTIFICATE (please fill in with capital letters)

According to French law, a Medical Certificate is required for all players competing an International Championship or a National Competition in France, including Club competitions.

We draw your attention on this important rule which is part of the conditions of play. This regulation is applicable to all sports and by all competition organizers, who could be held liable in the absence of such certificate.

Therefore, the French Golf Federation must receive the medical certificates duly filled by a doctor even if your players are well insured when they travel abroad and if a medical assistance covers all expenses.

We know that some countries don't have such regulation and do not require such certificates. Therefore, you will find hereunder a standard form-sheet "medical certificate" in order for you to know what exactly needs to be on it.

All players must send this medical certificate to:
French Golf Federation - Sport Department -
68 rue Anatole France - 92309 LEVALLOIS PERRET CEDEX - FRANCE

All players must return this form, before June 27th.
